

US Army Corps of Engineers
St. Paul District

UPPER MISSISSIPPI RIVER ARCHAEOLOGY

Navigation Pools 1-10

Examples of recent Corps-sponsored archaeological research highlighted in red

Historic Fort Snelling

West Newton Chute Dredged Material Placement Site: Site Survey

Rock Art: La Moille Cave

Goose Island: Site Survey

Effigy Mounds National Monument

Lock and Dam 3 Embankments: Site Evaluation

Hypothesized Onyota Village in the Red Wing Vicinity

Spring Lake: Submerged Site Identification

"War Eagle" Shipwreck

Stoddard: Public Field School

Tillmont Site: Data Recovery

For information about the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers and archaeology of the Upper Mississippi River, contact the Public Affairs Office at 651-290-5200 or an archaeologist at 651-290-5370 or visit www.mvp.usace.army.mil

Cultural Traditions on the Upper Mississippi River (years before present)

ca. 12,000 Paleo ca. 9,500 Archaic ca. 2,100 Woodland ca. 1,000 Onyota ca. 350 European Contact Present

